

LOCAL IN BRIEF.

C. W. Parent spent Saturday in Blackburn.

Dr. J. B. Wood spent Monday at Mt. Leonard.

L. O. Hocker of St. Louis was in the city Saturday.

E. B. Farley of St. Louis, was in the city Friday.

Miss Ida Elsen of Elmwood spent Monday in the city.

Mrs. G. A. Arnold of Slater spent Saturday in the city.

Miss Maude Smith, of the county, was a visitor Saturday.

Mrs. J. P. Fulkerson of Salt Spring was a visitor Saturday.

Miss Jessie Fulton, of Malta Bend, was in the city Monday.

H. H. Parsons left Sunday for Carrollton on a business trip.

J. W. Taylor of Mt. Leonard was in the county seat Monday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Buck Sunday Nov. 5th, a daughter.

Frank Miles came in Sunday night to spend several days in the city.

Henry Brown of Glasgow was the guest Sunday of Mrs. Ed Haynie.

A. A. Wallace spent several days at Hunceton this week on business.

Harry Striker spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wm Nock at Slater.

Dr. William Harrison was on the sick list several days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pate, and little daughter spent Saturday in the county seat.

The services at the different churches this week are increasing in interest daily.

Mrs. C. L. Hawkins and baby of St. Louis are visiting Mrs. Hawkins on Capitol Hill.

D. B. Duggins and C. W. Parent will spend Saturday at Lamine hunting quails.

Mrs. S. T. Gray, of Koping, who has been quite sick at her home in Koping, is improving.

Mrs. Scott of Miami spent a part of the week with her daughter, Mrs. Helen McDaniel.

Mrs. Bettie Hammer of Miami was the guest of J. L. Woodbridge the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Rainey will arrive this week from an extended trip through California.

Judge V. C. Yantis returned Tuesday from Kansas City where he spent several days on business.

W. L. Boyer left Saturday on a business trip. He spent Sunday with Miss Ethel at Louisiana.

Miss Beaton of Salisbury, arrived Tuesday for a visit to Mrs. S. W. Armstrong on Capitol Hill.

Mrs. A. A. McGeachy of Fulton, who was on the sick list for some days after her arrival, is out again.

Mrs. A. A. Williams and daughters, Ella and Mattie, of Koping, spent Saturday in Marshall shopping.

Miss Minnie Vance spent Saturday and Sunday in the city with her mother.

Mrs. J. S. Kelley returned Wednesday from her old home at Bowling Green, Ky.

Miss Fannie Wood, who has been making a visit to Kansas City friends will return Friday.

Ernest Putsch, of Sedalia, visited relatives and friends in our city Saturday and Sunday.

F. W. Mollenbrock of Blackburn attended the Odd Fellows' meeting here Friday night.

Mrs. Hall, the guest of Mrs. Barney Sappington left Saturday for her home at Pilot Grove.

Golden Lynch, the guest of his uncle J. B. White, returned Saturday to his home at Odessa.

Mrs. John Harrison and children of Blackburn spent Sunday in Marshall, the guests of relatives.

Harry Jones and wife returned last week from Oklahoma and are stopping with Mrs. Nora Conway.

Rev. J. A. Creighton was a visitor Saturday; he was enroute to Saline City where he preached Sunday.

Miss Gussie Strong returned Sunday night from a week's visit to Mrs. A. R. Grigsby in Kansas City.

Mrs. Luella Cooper, of Kansas City, came down Saturday night and is talking of locating in Marshall.

The many friends of J. M. Turner are delighted to see him able to be out again after his long spell of sickness.

Miss Sarah Monheim who has charge of a school in the country, spent Saturday with friends in Marshall.

Mr. and Mrs. John O'Day arrived Tuesday from Springfield, Mo., and are guests of Mr. and Mrs. O'Day of this city.

Steve West of Kansas City, spent Saturday in Marshall. He was enroute to Booneville where he thinks of locating.

Charlie Thompson spent Sunday and Monday in the city visiting his mother and talking business to our merchants.

Homeseekers rates via Chicago & Alton on Nov 7th to 21st; apply for particulars to

W. A. Beatty, Agt.

Judge Loyd Herring and wife, of Brunswick who were guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Seargeant left for their home on Tuesday.

Lost—Corral breast pin of gold leaf design, from Cumberland Presbyterian church and East Verby street. Leave at this office.

Mrs. F. G. Cordier and mother W. D. McGoffee of Waverly spent Saturday in the city and will read the REPUBLICAN in the future.

Miss Flora Crouch and sister Mrs. F. W. Jones, of St. Louis, returned Friday from Kansas City, where they attended the wedding of Miss Lena Nichols and Mr. Stephen Lynd. Mr. and Mrs. Lynd left immediately for an extended trip through the south.

O. W. JOHNSTON,

Successor to W. H. Hurt

HARDWARE-FURNITURE

EAST SIDE SQUARE.

Our prices are always Low and Quality is absolutely Guaranteed.

Greater strength at night for the days duties by resting while you sleep on our

Ideal Down Mattress and Celebrated ^{DOUBLE} _{ALL} Steel Springs!

There is no place like home when furnished with our bright

Richly Covered Couches and Artistic Rockers and Odd Pieces.

We have a line of

COOK STOVES,

that are unexcelled.

HEATERS—WOOD OR COAL.

That possess three very important features. Economical in fuel, Powerful Heaters, Durable, Low in Price, High in Quality.

Scoops, Axes, Wood Saws, Pocket and Table cutlery, Etc.

Remember our motto—"Big Sales Small Profit."

O. W. JOHNSTON.

Mrs. E. L. Brown and guest, Miss Louise Sweet made a short visit to the former's parents at Armstrong last week.

P. H. Franklin who has been in Chicago for some ten days buying Christmas goods returned Friday evening.

□ Cecil Wilson, who is representing a liquid carbonic acid firm of St. Louis, left Tuesday morning for a six weeks trip in Nebraska.

Miss Georgie Spencer and Miss Minnie Vance came up Monday afternoon from Slater, and attended the Lewis lecture at the Opera House, which was fine indeed.

Mrs. W. L. Hancock of Blackburn spent several days this last week with her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Sparks of this city, and unfortunately was quite sick while here. She has returned to her home at Blackburn.

Mrs. Wm Robertson, the guest of Mrs. Thomas Boatright, left Tuesday for a visit to Lexington friends, before returning to her home at Black Rock, Ark.

Mrs. Paul H. Moore of Jefferson city, Wilber Johnson and Miss Martha Stephens, of Booneville are being entertained this week by Mrs. Dr. Roddy of St. Louis.

Services will be held in the new Mission church on next Sunday, the building having been about finished. It is a pretty little church and quite an ornament to West Marshall.

LOST or STOLEN—A ladies gold watch with chain attached; a reward of $50.00 will be paid in lieu of all other rewards heretofore offered for their return and no questions asked.

Marshall Book Co.
Marshall Mo.